

THIRTY-THREE WEEKS WITH JESUS

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Week: 33

Prayer Focus: The Promises of Jesus

Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man comes unto the Father but by Me. John 14:6

The promises of Jesus are true. His statements throughout the Bible have either been fulfilled or shall be fulfilled in due course. In the Scripture above, He gives a clear description of Himself, which is also direction for one's life. He also offers a warning. No one will go to God apart from Jesus.

Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. He always has been. Some believe this. Some reject this. Whether one accepts it or rejects this statement, it is being lived out and it will become a reality in one's life. There is no other way to God and the sanctity of His peace and protection without Jesus as the path to God.

A good life is not a saved life. A life well-lived apart from Jesus is a soul that will perish in Hell. All accumulated worldly treasures will have no value to save a soul. While there is still time, Jesus can be found. He wants to be discovered. But He will not force His way into a heart. One must come there of one's volition. Prayer helps.

This week the prayer focus is for people to recognize Jesus as their way, their truth, and their life. This may be a first time revelation for some or it may be a time of renewal in the lives of some who have walked with Jesus but have grown weary. Jesus' promise has not altered. He is still there. Still waiting. Still wanting to love you and love me. Respond to Him today. No matter what the world offers, Jesus is forever the way, the truth, and the life. Trust Him today.

Lord Jesus, there is no other way to God except through You. Thank You for making this clear in Your Word and for continuing to touch with Your Spirit so more are drawn to You. Jesus, grant wisdom and strength to those of us who ache for those souls who have not given themselves to You. If we ache it is because You do, for You do not want anyone to live separated from You. Thank You, Jesus, for the gift of prayer. May we use it with all our might and trust the earthly and eternal answers to Thee. Amen.

Weekly Faith Challenge: Meditate on the Scripture above throughout this week. Spend time reading this passage and writing this passage. Let the Holy Spirit guide you to see evidence of this promise in your daily life as well as in the eternal decisions made for Him by virtue of your prayers. The decision for a soul given to Jesus may be for you or for someone else. Be blessed in the act of prayer and hope. Watch the Holy Spirit work.

May God bless you Eternally through Jesus, the Risen Son and Saviour.
