

Do you know anyone who does not know Christ?

The best thing you can do for them is pray. Ask God to work in their lives. God can use you to show His love, too.

Can you think of friends or family members who need prayer?

Maybe you know someone at school who is having a hard time. You don't need to say anyone's name out loud. Instead, you can write the names down of people who you want to pray for. Start a list that you pray over every day.

Will you be willing to start a prayer list?

Jesus taught us that we should love others even if they don't love us. You could have an incredible impact on others just by praying for them!

How can you pray for enemies?

God hears your prayers; so remember to pray to Him every day. It's just like talking to a friend. God wants to hear from you.

When is a good time that you can set aside to pray every day?
