

Operation Andrew is a well-known and effective way to mobilize youth for evangelism.

- Pass out Operation Andrew youth brochures (available online in PDF form).
- Go through the five steps together.
- Discuss together how youth can live out each step: Look Around, Look Up, Look Out, Look Forward, and Look After.
- Encourage youth to write down the names of friends who don't know Jesus.
- Pray together that their friends will be introduced to Jesus.
- Encourage youth frequently to pray for friends on their lists.
- Provide a way for youth to invite their unsaved friends to a youth event, youth group meeting, Sunday school class, or small group meeting.
- Consider planning an intentional outreach event. The event can feature activities will be intentionally engaging to guests or spiritual seekers.
- Talk about what it means to be a good friend.
- List some ways to be a good friend.
- End with a simple prayer.
